(plus $489.00 departure taxes*)

Enjoy the Stout Pounders On Their Tour of Ireland

Dublin. Morning arrival at Dublin Airport where you are greeted by your Driver/Guide. Leaving the airport we travel to a nearby september 29 Saturday Dublin. Morning arrival at Dublin Airport where you are greeted by your Driver/Guide. Leaving the airport we travel to a nearby where we enjoy a panoramic tour of this 1000-year old city. We then see statue filled O'Connell Street, The General Post Office scene of the 1916 Easter Uprising, as well as Georgian Squane. Our group will then visit the Guilmess Storehouse for a tour and a pintl Group will be dropped off on Nassau Street for some free browsing time. We will then check into our hotel. Overnight Dublin at Herbert Park Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Dublin-Blarney-Killarney, Morning departure from Dublin has us heading south through Nasa home to The Irish National Stud Farm, famous for breeding thoroughbred horses. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cashel for a visual view of this impressive site where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5° century. We continue to Blamey, famous for its 14th ecentury and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his schildhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-City painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 popule and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native s
Day 2	Day 1	USA-Ireland. Depart USA for overnight flight to Ireland. Dinner and in-flight entertainment is served shortly after take-off.
Day 2 September 29 September 29 Saturday Day 3 September 30 Sunday Saturday	•
September 29 Saturday venue where everyone will have an opportunity for their first Full Irish Breakfast (at own expense). We travel into Dublin Town where we enjoy a pancramic tour of this 1000-year old city. We then see estatue filled O'Connell Street, The General Post Office scene of the 1916 Easter Uprising, as well as Georgian Square. Our group will then visit the Guinness Storehouse for a tour and a pint! Group will be dropped off on Nassau Street for some free browsing time. We will then check into our hotel. Overnight Dublin at Herbert Park Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Dublin-Blarney-Killarney. Morning departure from Dublin has us heading south through Naas home to The Irish National Stud Farm, famous for breeding thoroughbred horses. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cashel for a visual view of this impressive site where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5th century. We continue to Blamey, famous for its 14th century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native safrod chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see be hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There i	Friday saturday where we enjoy a panoramic tour of this 1000-year old city. We then see statute filled O'Connell Street. The General Post Office scene of the 1916 Easter Uprising, as well as Georgian Square. Our group will then visit the Outness Storehouse for a tour and a pint! Group will be dropped off on Nassau Street for some free browsing time. We will then check into our hote! Overnight Dublin at Herbert Park Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Dublin-Blarney-Killarney. Morning departure from Dublin has us heading south through Naas home to The Irish National Stud Farm, famous for breeding thoroughbred horses. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cashel for a visual view of this impressive site where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5th century. We continue to Blarney, famous for its 14th century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cashel for a visual view of this impressive site where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5th century. We continue to Blarney, famous for its 14th century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey takes us east over the Kerry and Cork Mountains to Macroom Where we pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century kissing stone and was the seat of the McCarhys of Muskery. Oliver Crownell granted it own darial Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney to the Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and on	Day 2	Dublin. Morning arrival at Dublin Airport where you are greeted by your Driver/Guide. Leaving the airport we travel to a nearby
seene of the 1916 Easter Uprising, as well as Georgian Square. Our group will then visit the Guinness Storehouse for a tour and a pint! Group will be dropped off on Nassau Street for some free browsing time. We will then check into our hotel. Overnight Dublin at Herbert Park Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Day 3 September 30 Sunday Sunday Day 4 October 1 Monday Millarney, Morning departure from Dublin has us heading south through Naas home to The Irish National Stud Farm, famous for breeding thoroughbred horses. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cabel for a visual view of this impressive site where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5th century. We continue to Blarney, famous for its 14th century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey takes us east over the Kerry and Cork Mountains to Macroom where we pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Si William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney. International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-Dingle-Killarney, After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only $2 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particu	September 29	venue where everyone will have an opportunity for their first Full Irish Breakfast (at own expense). We travel into Dublin Town
Day 3 September 30 Sunday Dublin-Blarney-Killarney. Morning departure from Dublin has us heading south through Naas home to The Irish National Stud Farm, famous for breeding thoroughbred horses. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cashel for a visual view of this impressive site where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5th century will be century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey takes us east over the Kerry and Cork Mountains to Macroom where we pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskery. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray at time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only $2 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowders served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Stea Head. Along the way, we will see be hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. By 5 October 2 Tuesday Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare b	Saturday	where we enjoy a panoramic tour of this 1000-year old city. We then see statue filled O'Connell Street, The General Post Office
Dublin-Blarney-Killarney. Morning departure from Dublin has us heading south through Naas home to The Irish National Stud Farm, famous for breeding thoroughbred horses. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cashel for a visual view of this impressive site where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5th century. We continue to Blarney, famous for its 14th century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey takes us east over the Kerry and Cork Mountains to Macroom where we pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey takes us east over the Kerry and Cork Mountains to Macroom where we pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century should be a made on the century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in wes		scene of the 1916 Easter Uprising, as well as Georgian Square. Our group will then visit the Guinness Storehouse for a tour and a
Sunday S		pint! Group will be dropped off on Nassau Street for some free browsing time. We will then check into our hotel. Overnight Dublin
Sunday Sunday Sunday Sunday A gram, famous for breeding thoroughbred horses. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cashel for a visual view of this impressive site where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5th century. We continue to Blarney, famous for its 14th century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey takes us east over the Kerry and Cork Mountains to Macroom where we pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. OBrien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From		at Herbert Park Hotel. Dinner is on your own.
where legend has it St. Patrick crowned the High Kings of Ireland in the 5th century. We continue to Blarney, famous for its 14th century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey takes us east over the Kerry and Cork Mountains to Macroom where we pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. By 4 October 1 Monday Monday Killarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Towelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara.	Day 3	Dublin-Blarney-Killarney. Morning departure from Dublin has us heading south through Naas home to The Irish National Stud century kissing stone and plentiful woolen mills. Our journey takes us east over the Kerry and Cork Mountains to Macroom where we pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and cr	September 30	Farm, famous for breeding thoroughbred horses. Our journey passes by the Rock of Cashel for a visual view of this impressive site pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13th century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney- Dingle- Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Utmerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. OBriene Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival	Sunday century and was the seat of the McCarthys of Muskerry. Oliver Cromwell granted it to Admiral Sir William Penn whose namesake son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight at The Killarney International Hotel. Dinner is on your own. Killarney- Dingle- Killarney. After breakfasts we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only $2 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12 th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Day 5 October 2 Tuesday Killarney-Ciliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th		pause for a short visit. This is the main market town for the Gaelic speaking region to the west. Macroom Castle dates from the 13 th
Day 4 October 1 Monday Millarney-Dingle-Killarney. After breakfast we depart Killarney for the Dingle Peninsula. The journey begins with some of the most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th octury monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Cotober 2 Tuesday Millarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoiream) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1
Norday October 1 Monday		son spent much of his childhood here and later founded the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We then arrive in Killarney overnight most magnificent scenery in all of Ireland. The little town of Dingle is straight out of a story book. The fishing boats in the harbor and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Penin and tiny brightly painted pubs portray a time that has continued to stand still. The population of 1500 people and only 52 pubs are ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Bay 5 October 2 Tuesday Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, an	Day 4 ready to welcome you this afternoon. Worth the wait is the native seafood chowder served up at lunch time with freshly baked brown bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Bay 5 October 2 Tuesday Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galw bread. We continue on to Slea Head. Along the way, we will see bee hive style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Day 5 October 2 Tuesday Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerrit. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara	Monday which overlook the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. There is no other landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habita continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara Wednesday Wednesday Wednesday Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver gu landscape in western Europe with the density and variety of archaeological monuments as found on the Dingle Peninsula. Overnight Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Day 5 October 2 Tuesday Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Commaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic rem Killarney International Hotel. Dinner at our hotel. Day 5 October 2 Tuesday Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it ret
 Killarney-Cliffs of Moher-Galway. After a full Irish Breakfast we depart Killarney. Continue on into County Clare bypassing Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoiream) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the h Dctober 2 Tuesday Limerick and gaze at the majestic awe of the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher. O'Brien's Tower is the best location from which to view the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it be the Cliffs. From this vantage point one can see the Aran Islands as well as The Twelve Pins and the Maum Turk Mountains to the north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Day 6 October 3 Wednesday Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.	•
north in Connemara. We continue into the rugged Burren Ireland's stony place (Bhoireann) the Burren, is home to rare alpine plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
plants, delicate wonders that grow in the thin soil and crevices - gentians, orchids and maidenhair ferns amongst others. The survival of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.	Tuesday of both alpine and Mediterranean plants in this unusual habitat continues to arouse and to delight its visitors. The Burren contains dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
dozens of megalithic tombs, Celtic crosses and a ruined Cistercian Abbey dating from the 12th century, Corcomroe. You can find villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
villages abandoned since famine times and green roads on which you can walk for miles without ever seeing a car. We continue through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.		1 through Ireland's rugged Burren Landscape to youthful bustling Galway City. In the 1400's, there began in Galway the rule of the 'Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
Tribes', as the leading fourteen families were called. Their names were Athy, Blake, Bodkin, Browne, Darcy, Deane, Font, French, Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
Joyce, Kirwan, Lynch, Martin, Morris, and Skerritt. Time today to browse "Shop Street" as well as the lively pubs that dot the city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
city. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel in Galway. Connemara Peninsula After enjoying breakfast we meet our driver guide in the lobby of the hotel and begin to tour The Connemara National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
October 3 Wednesday National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
October 3 Wednesday National Park. Connemara, (Conmaicnemara – the tribe of Cormac by the sea), white sand beaches, dark bogs and tall jagged mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.	Day 6
Wednesday mountains make this one of the most scenic and unspoiled areas in the country. Wild and rugged, in some places here, Gaelic remains the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
the only spoken language. We travel first to Clifden, (An Clochan). Founded in the early 19th century by John D'Arcy, it retains much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
much of its Georgian architecture. Placed at the head of a broad Atlantic Bay and nestled below the Twelve Bens, the town is blessed by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.	Wednesday by it beautiful setting. Known as the capital of Connemara, Clifden is a lively location full of shops, pubs, restaurants and cafés.
Heading north along the coast, Kylemore Abbey may be next. This extraordinary neo-gothic abbey looms at the base of the hill at Kylemore Lake. The highlight is the recently restored Gothic chapel, a cathedral in miniature with a plain, simple cemetery on one Tylemore Lake. The nightight is the recently restored of the chaper, a cancertain minimature with a plant, simple centerry on one		The manner bake. The mannager is the recently restored doubt enaper, a cathedral in inimature with a plant, simple centerly on one side and a lavish Victorian garden on the other. This is another often photographed vista from Ireland. We then make our way back to Galway for our overnight. Overnight Imperial Hotel Galway. Dinner is at your hotel Day 7	Galway-Westport-Sligo. After breakfast we head towards Westport. We join the main road and our journey takes us via Leenane to

October 4	Westport taking in more of the most exalted scenery Ireland has to offer. Westport enjoys the designation as one of Ireland's Heritage
Thursday	Towns. It is situated in the shadow of Croagh Patrick, overlooking Clew Bay. One of the few planned towns in the Country, Westport was designed in the 18th Century by James Wyatt. Westport has many outstanding features, most notably the beautiful tree lined boulevard known as The Mall. Our next stop is Sligo, home of William Butler Yeats. Overnight at The Great Southern Hotel Sligo. Dinner on own.
Day 8	Sligo. After breakfast we enjoy a tour of Sligo and area. We first follow the road around Knocknarea, which has an ancient cairn on October 5	the summit. Strandhill seaside resort is next, and then back along the peninsula to Rosses Point. Drumcliffe is next, where W.B. Yeats
Friday	is buried, and also the site of an ancient monastic settlement founded by St. Colmcille in the 6th century. Then on to Carney, Grange, Cliffony and Mullaghmore. Head south for the lovely glen of Glencar. Then towards Lough Gill by the Hazelwood Forest Park, Dromahair and Dooney Rock, back to Sligo. Overnight The Great Southern Hotel Sligo. Dinner on own.
Day 9	Sligo-Dublin. After a full Irish Breakfast we travel through the lush Irish Midlands . We'll cross the Broad Majestic Shannon at October 6	Athlone and travel through Longford & Mullingar with historic and scenic stops suggested by our driver/guide. We'll arrive in Saturday	Dublin in time for a full afternoon of shopping and sightseeing. Overnight Herbert Park Hotel. Dinner on own.
Day 10	Dublin. Spend the day enjoying the sites of this 1000+ year old city. This afternoon why not enjoy the Dublin Hop On Hop Off Bus.
October 7	You will be sure to see St. Patrick's Cathedral where writer Jonathan Swift gave his sermons, The G.P.O. on O'Connell Street
Sunday	scene of the 1916 Easter Uprising where the bullet holes still remain to this day. Drive through famous Phoenix Park where the Pope said Mass in late 70's and finally Trinity College to view the 8 th century manuscripts, The Book of Kells, still preserved as they were when the Monks produced them all those centuries ago. Why not visit Guinness Storehouse for a peek at the makings of this world famous brew Overnight Herbert Park Hotel. Dinner on own.
Day 11	Dublin-USA. After breakfast we are transferred to nearby Dublin Airport. In the off chance that you missed shopping opportunities,
October 8	Dublin has a large Duty-Free Shop that you can visit once you are checked in for your flight. In the traditional Irish way we wish
Monday	you "Safe Home".

- Round Trip Airfare from NYC to Ireland (schedule announced 90 days in advance)
- Deluxe motorcoach vehicle throughout your tour, including all transfers and sightseeing
- Services of professional Irish Driver and Guide.
- Nine (9 Nights) Accommodations as follows or similar:

Herbert Park Hotel-1 Night * www.herbertparkhotel.ie Dublin

Killarney Killarney International Hotel-2 Nights  www.killarneyinternationalhotel.com

The Imperial Hotel- 2 Nights  www.imperialhotelgalway.ie Galway

Sligo Great Southern Hotel-2 Nights * www.greatsouthernhotelsligo.ie Sligo

Herbert Park Hotel-2 Nights * www.herbertparkhotel.ie Dublin

- Breakfast daily, Two Dinners: 1 Killarney, 1 Galway
- Admission Guinness Brewery & Cliffs of Moher
- Fully escorted sightseeing as per itinerary
- Porterage of one suitcase per person, Hotel tips and taxes throughout (Except tips to your personal Driver/Guide)
- Deluxe portfolio of travel documents professionally executed

Cancellation Penalties: (LAND) if written cancellation is received by Hammond Tour more than 120 days prior to departure, a processing fee of $250.00 per person will apply. From 119 days to 60 days prior to departure, a cancellation penalty of $600.00 per person will apply. 60 Days or less prior to departure- a 100% cancellation penalty fee applies.

Reservation Application Please reserve _____ seat(s) on your September 28-October 8, 2018 (SP092818) I enclose a deposit of $ _____ ($250.00 per person) Deposit Due: ASAP to hold seats 2nd Deposit of $350.00 due by March 30, 2018. FINAL PAYMENT DUE: July 1, 2018 Name (as on passport) ____ D.O.B. Address: _____(work): _____email:____ Tel: (home): ___ D.O.B. Other passengers traveling with me_ Room Type: Twin (2 Beds)/Double (1 Bed): Single: YOU MUST PAY SINGLE RATE IF NOT TRAVELING WITH A COMPANION, PLEASE ADVISE IF YOU NEED A ROOMMATE Cancellation Insurance: Please call for details, now aged based (must be paid with deposit) (Medical & Death Reasons only) SINGLE SUPPLEMENT: $759.00 (LIMITED NUMBER AVAILABLE) _____YES We Accept Visa, MasterCard, American Express and Discover Card.

*Government Departure Tax is Always Subject to Change

TOUR IS BASED ON MINIMUM 30 PARTICIPANTS AIRFARE IS NOT GUARANTEED UNTIL PACKAGE IS PAID IN FULL

(Make Check Payable to Hammond Tours)

Send check and application to:

HAMMOND TOURS

34 WEDGEWOOD LANE, VOORHEESVILLE, NY 12186

TEL: 518-765-2056

TEL: 866-486-8772 (TOLL FREE) Email: jwasserbach@hammondtours.com