A day of Braveheart with a visit to Stirling, once known as the 'Key to Scotland', with its imposing position in the centre of the country, is home to Stirling Castle . For centuries this was the most important castle in Scotland and the views from the top make it easy to see why. Stirling Castle played an important role in the life of Mary Queen of Scots. Soak up the history and stunning views from the Wallace Monument , perched high on the Abbey Craig around where Wallace camped before his heroic battle of Stirling Bridge in 1297, built in 1869 to commemorate Scotland's hero. Overnight Holiday Inn Express.
Day 4 April 12 Tuesday	Rosslyn Chapel & Linlithgow Palace. A little south of the city is the fascinating Rosslyn Chapel where the Da Vinci code was filmed. It took 40 years to build and the stone carvings are stunning masterpieces of the stonemasons craft and make the church unique as practically every surface of the Chapel is covered. People travel from all over the world to see the intricate carvings, and there are many different interpretations of their meanings. Myths, legends and Hollywood fiction writing have given Rosslyn a unique sense of mystery and wonder. Our next stop is Linlithgow Palace . Linlithgow Palace, in the town of Linlithgow, 15 miles west of Edinburgh, was used to represent the infamous Wentworth Prison. It is here that Jamie suffered the abuses of Captain 'Blackjack' Randall. ... The ruins of the palace can be found in the town of Linlithgow, Scotland. Overnight Holiday Inn Express.

George Square: considered by many to be Glasgow's City Centre. It's a great place to start seeing the sights. The Square was designed and built in the late 19th century at the height of Glasgow's prosperity. The Victorian buildings, including the splendid City Chambers, are a grand reminder of yesteryear and are a point of pride for the city. Pass through the bustling Merchant City to The Peoples Palace and Winter Gardens situated in Glasgow Green, a glasshouse and a museum of social history for the city of Glasgow since the 1940s and tell the story of the people and the city from 1750 to the present day.
