whiskey lovers' TOUR OF IRELAND

with music from HUGH MORRISON, BETH PATTERSON, and THE BEHAN BROTHERS

Join us as we explore Ireland through the lens of, and pay homage to, what was once the most popular drink in the world – Uisce Beatha, “the water of life”. And in the meantime, take in the splendor and magnificence of some of Ireland’s most famous sites. You know you’ve been wanting and waiting to do this! And you don’t have to be a whiskey-lover to love this tour! And neither do your friends!

TRAV DAY	Oct 20 Friday	USA to Ireland. Depart USA for overnight flight to Ireland. Dinner and in-flight entertainment are served shortly after take-off.
DAY 1	Oct 21 Saturday	Shannon-Foynes-Tralee. Morning arrival at Shannon Airport where after clearing customs we meet our Professional Irish Driver/Guide and Hammond Tours Escort. We head to nearby Bunratty Castle for a sit-down breakfast, and then it’s off to the Foynes Flying Boat and Maritime Museum to discover the era of transatlantic passenger flights, the invention of Irish Coffee, and the maritime history of the majestic River Shannon. From there, we drive to Tralee where the rest of the day is yours to explore the town. “Meet-and-Greet” Dinner and overnight at the Rose Hotel.
DAY 2	Oct 22 Sunday	Dingle. After a lazy breakfast, we depart for the Dingle Peninsula – with its rolling hills, sandy beaches, and craggy cliffs. We arrive at the splendid little storybook town of Dingle and home to Dingle Distillery . Growing out of the Porterhouse Brewing Company, their first distillery opened in 2012 in the old sawmills on the Milltown Road. After lunch in Dingle, we’re on our way to Slea Head, where we’ll see beehive-style huts, originally inhabited by 12th century monks, overlooking the rugged Blasket Islands. The awe-inspiring beauty of this particular area is unmatched. Then we return to Tralee to turn you loose on the town. Dinner is on your own. Overnight at the Rose Hotel.
DAY 3	Oct 23 Monday	Midleton-Cork. After breakfast we bid adieu to Tralee and make our way to Midleton, famous for its Midleton College, founded in 1596, and the Midleton Distillery , founded in 1825, Ireland’s premiere distiller of whiskey. We enjoy a tour of our second distillery which concludes in the Jameson Bar with an Irish Whiskey tasting session where you may have the opportunity of becoming a qualified Irish Whiskey Taster with a presentation diploma! From there, it’s on to Cork City where you’ll have the rest of the day to take in its sights. Dinner is on your own. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel.
DAY 4	Oct 24 Tuesday	Cashel. Our morning departure from Cork takes us north and east until we arrive at and visit the majestic Rock of Cashel . With its well-preserved ecclesiastical remains, the Rock of Cashel is one of Ireland’s most spectacular landmarks, towering high above the surrounding plain and dominating the land route southward. The large Cathedral, ancient round tower and very early Romanesque Cormac’s Chapel, perched on a dramatic outcrop of rock, bore silent witness to many stirring events in Irish History – St Patrick converted Munster’s King Aenghus here in the 5th century, and Brian Boru was crowned King of Ireland on this spot in the early 11th Century. We’ll have lunch in Cashel, and then return to cork. The rest of the day belongs to you. Dinner is on your own. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel.
DAY 5	Oct 25 Wednesday	Kilkenny. We take our final leave of Cork and hit the road for a drive along the Celtic Sea to Waterford, and then north to the city of Kilkenny, the “Marble City”, to visit the must-see destination for any tour of Ireland – Kilkenny Castle . From the vibrant parks and gardens surrounding the castle to the meticulous renderings and restorations throughout its halls, Kilkenny Castle offers plenty of incredible sights for its visitors. The ancestral home of the Butlers, the Earls and Dukes of Ormonde, the castle was first built in 1192 and restored to its 18 th -century splendor beginning in 1967. Dinner is on your own. Overnight at the River Court Hotel.
DAY 6	Oct 26 Thursday	Kilbeggan-Athlone. We head cross-country this morning, northward through Portlaoise and Tullamore until we reach Kilbeggan (from Cill Bheagáin , “the church of St Bécán”). Once there, we visit the Kilbeggan Distillery – the oldest licensed distillery of its kind in Ireland. Founded in 1757, our third distillery spent the next 200 years making a whiskey beloved the world over. When tough times ground its gears to a halt, the town came together to save the whiskey that built the town. After lunch, we putter around County Westmeath, taking in the rich history of this geographic center of Ireland! After a few hours of sightseeing, we make our way back to Kilkenny. Dinner is on your own. Overnight at the River Court Hotel.
DAY 7	Oct 27 Friday	Glendalough-Dublin. After an early breakfast, we say goodbye to Kilkenny and venture through Carlow and Kildare and into the Wicklow Valley to visit Glendalough , the home of St Kevin, surrounded by beautiful mountains and gardens where time has stood still. We’ll see the round tower and ruined churches of the 6th-century monastery and hear an explanation of the history of the settlement. Then we make our way to Ireland’s 1,000-year-old city of Dublin. Once there we visit the Irish Whiskey Museum – where we’ll take a journey back through time to learn the origins of Irish whiskey, its rise to glory and its dramatic fall and its rebirth. Dinner is on your own. Overnight at the Radisson Blu Royal Hotel.
DAY 8	Oct 28 Saturday	Dublin. An early breakfast precedes a 12-minute walk to the heart of Dublin’s historic Liberties where, in the center of the Golden Triangle and against the backdrop of a city steeped in whiskey history, the Teeling Whiskey Distillery opened its doors in 2015 as the first new distillery in Dublin for over 125 years. The rest of the day is yours to see Dublin. Try the Hop-On/Hop-Off Dublin Bus Pass. You’ll be sure to see the beautiful St Patrick’s Cathedral, the magnificent Dublin Castle, the history-laden G.P.O. on O’Connell Street, Kilmainham Gaol, the famous Phoenix Park, and Trinity College – home to the Book of Kells. Don’t miss St James’ Gate and the Guinness Storehouse. Be sure to visit Dublin’s oldest Pub this afternoon, the Brazen Head. Take a stroll along Ormond Quay. Enjoy a Literary Pub Crawl this evening after dinner. If you haven’t had enough of whiskey by this time, check out the Pearse Lyons Distillery built into St James’ Church, the Roe & Co Distillery, or the Dublin Liberties Distillery... all of them between a 5-minute and 20-minute walk from the hotel. “Parting Glass” Dinner and overnight at the Radisson Blu Royal Hotel.
TRAV DAY	Oct 29 Sunday	Dublin-Dublin Airport-USA. After breakfast, we transfer to Dublin Airport for our flight home. Arrive home the same day. In the true Irish Tradition, we wish you a “Safe Home”.
