Day 1, April 14 – Wednesday: Tour begins at Dublin Airport! The tour departs Dublin Airport at 10:00AM sharp. Your Hammond Tours Irish Driver Guide will meet you in the arrivals hall. We head first into Dublin city for a visit to the Teeling Distillery — Ireland's first new Dublin distillery in over 125 years — for a guided tour and tasting. Founded by the Teeling family, this award-winning small-batch distillery sits in the heart of the Liberties, Dublin's historic distilling quarter. You'll learn the craft behind their single grain, single malt, and blended expressions, and enjoy a generous tasting at the end. After the distillery we check into our hotel and get settled in. The evening is yours to explore Dublin on your own. Overnight at the Camden Court Hotel, Dublin.

Day 2, April 15 – Thursday: Dublin – Fire Brigade Day. A truly special day for the group. We visit the Dublin Fire Brigade Training Centre & Museum, home to one of Europe's oldest continuously operating fire services, dating to 1862. The museum houses extraordinary equipment, uniforms, and archives that tell the story of firefighting in Dublin across more than 150 years. This evening brings one of the most memorable moments of the tour: an invitation to join the Dublin Fire Brigade 1875 Whiskey Club at the legendary Palace Bar on Fleet Street — one of Dublin's finest Victorian pubs, a favorite of journalists and writers for generations. Share a dram with our Dublin colleagues and toast the brotherhood of the fire service. Overnight at the Camden Court Hotel, Dublin.

Day 3, April 16 – Friday: Dublin – Kilkenny – Cork. We depart Dublin and head south to the medieval city of Kilkenny for a visit to the magnificent Kilkenny Castle. Built in 1195 by the powerful Butler dynasty, this imposing Norman fortress towers over the River Nore and houses a world-class art gallery within its beautifully restored Long Gallery. We'll take a guided tour of the castle and explore the surrounding grounds before continuing south to Cork, Ireland's second city — fiercely proud, full of character, and home to some of the country's best food and music. Dinner & Overnight at the Imperial Hotel, Cork.

Day 4, April 17 – Saturday: Cork – Ringfinnan. This is a deeply meaningful day for every firefighter on the tour. We travel to the Ringfinnan Garden of Remembrance in Kinsale, Co. Cork — a remarkable memorial created by Kathleen Murphy, a nurse who was working in New York on September 11, 2001, and witnessed the attacks first-hand. Returning home to her family's farm, she planted 343 trees — one for each of the FDNY firefighters killed that day — and created a garden of granite memorials and quiet reflection. It is one of the most moving tributes to the fallen anywhere in the world. We'll take time to walk the grounds, reflect, and honor those we lost. The afternoon is free for exploring the beautiful harbor town of Kinsale before returning to Cork. Overnight at the Imperial Hotel, Cork.

Day 5, April 18 – Sunday: Cork – Blarney – Killarney. Morning visit to the world-famous Blarney Castle, home of the legendary Blarney Stone — said to bestow the gift of eloquence on all who kiss it. Explore the castle's dramatic battlements, the beautiful Rock Close gardens, and of course, the Blarney Woolen Mills for some of Ireland's finest knitwear, tweeds, and gifts. We then head west into the Kingdom of Kerry and arrive in the charming town of Killarney, where a traditional Jaunting Car ride through Killarney National Park awaits — a horse-drawn carriage tour through some of Ireland's most spectacular scenery, guided by a local 'Jarvey' with stories and songs to match. Dinner & Overnight at the Killarney International Hotel.

Day 6, April 19 – Monday: Ring of Kerry & Sheepdog Experience. One of the great scenic drives in all of Europe, the Ring of Kerry circles the Iveragh Peninsula through mountain passes, along cliff-top roads, and past ancient stone forts, hidden beaches, and island-dotted bays. The views across the Atlantic are simply breathtaking. Along the way we stop at a working hill farm for a sheepdog demonstration — watch as a skilled border collie and its handler move a flock across the hillside with nothing but whistles and hand signals. A true taste of rural Ireland at its finest. The evening is yours to enjoy the pubs, music, and atmosphere of Killarney. Overnight at the Killarney International Hotel.

Day 7, April 20 – Tuesday: Killarney – Cliffs of Moher – Westport. We head north through County Clare to one of Ireland's most iconic natural wonders: the Cliffs of Moher. Rising over 700 feet above the Atlantic along 8 kilometres of coastline, these extraordinary sea cliffs are home to thousands of seabirds and offer views on a clear day all the way to the Aran Islands and the mountains of Connemara. Walk the paved pathways, take in the drama from O'Brien's Tower, and feel the wind coming straight off the ocean. We then continue north into County Mayo and the charming town of Westport, one of Ireland's most beloved destinations on the Wild Atlantic Way. Dinner & Overnight at the CastleCourt Hotel, Westport.

Day 8, April 21 – Wednesday: Achill Island. Today we head out to Achill Island — Ireland's largest island, connected to the mainland by a short bridge, and one of the most dramatic landscapes in the country. Towering sea cliffs, golden beaches, and blanket bog stretch as far as the eye can see. We'll visit the hauntingly beautiful Keem Bay — a horseshoe bay of turquoise water framed by cliffs — and explore the village of Keel, the wild Atlantic coastline, and the famous Deserted Village on the slopes of Slievemore, where the ruins of an entire pre-Famine settlement stand as a silent testament to Ireland's history. A magical and unforgettable day. Overnight at the CastleCourt Hotel, Westport.

Day 9, April 22 – Thursday: Westport – Athlone – Dublin. We make our way east, stopping in Athlone to visit Sean's Bar — officially the oldest pub in the world, established around 900 AD and listed in the Guinness Book of Records. Famous among first responders worldwide for its collection of agency patches adorning the walls, Sean's Bar is a pilgrimage for any firefighter visiting Ireland. And today it gets even better: we'll take part in an Irish Coffee Masterclass right here at the bar. From Athlone we continue to Dublin, stopping at the Jameson Distillery on Bow Street for a tour of the home of Ireland's most famous whiskey. Learn the story behind triple distillation, explore the beautifully restored 18th-century distillery complex, and finish with a guided tasting. Overnight at the Camden Court Hotel, Dublin.

Day 10, April 23 – Friday: Dublin – USA. After breakfast, your group transfer departs from the Camden Court Hotel to Dublin Airport. There will be time for some final duty-free shopping and perhaps one last pint of Guinness before you fly home. It's been a journey of brotherhood, history, and unforgettable Irish hospitality. Safe travels — until next time!
